MAKING NEW THANKSGIVING TRADITIONS

While it can be stressful to squeeze so many activities into one day, it's well worth it because, in many ways, the Thanksgiving traditions you share with loved ones bring meaning to the holiday. That said, it's never too late to shake things up by adding one or two new traditions into the mix. Write thank-you notes Send guests home with party favors or leftovers Serve brunch instead of dinner Have a potluck dinner Add something new to the menu Make a special family recipe Share family history Make a family contribution Draw names for holiday gifts Invite someone new to Thanksgiving Make it a progressive dinner What every you decide to do the Staff and Board M embers at Salt River Senior Center wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving !
